DARK GREEN RELIGION

Nature Spirituality and the Planetary Future

BRON TAYLOR

“Deepening the palette of green scholarship, Taylor proves remarkably to be both an encyclopedist and a visionary.”
—Jonathan Benthall, author of Returning to Religion

“Offers both understanding and hope for a world struggling for meaning and purpose beyond the isolation of the material here and now.”
—Stephen Kellert, Yale University School of Forestry & Environmental Studies

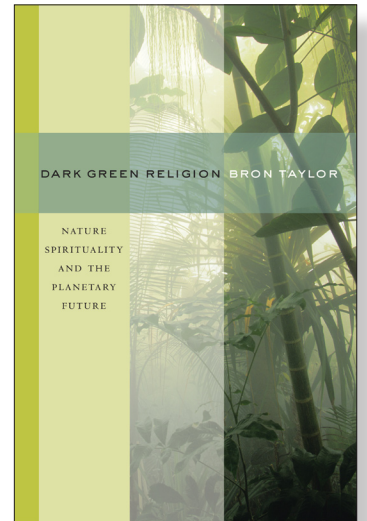

“A vital contribution on a subject of immense religious, political, and environmental importance. It’s also a great read.”
—Roger S. Gottlieb, author of A Greener Faith

“Taylor explores the seemingly boundless efforts by human beings to understand the nature of life and our place in the universe.”—Peter H. Raven, President, Missouri Botanical Garden

“A fascinating analysis of our emotional and spiritual relationship to nature. Taylor takes us through our spiritual relationship with our planet, its ecosystems and evolution, in an enlightened and completely undogmatic manner.”
—Dr. Claude Martin, Former Director General, World Wildlife Fund

“An excellent collection of guideposts for perplexed students and scholars about the relationships of nature religions, spirituality, animism, pantheism, deep ecology, Gaia, and land ethics—and for the environmentalist seeking to make the world a better place through green religion as a social force.”
—Fikret Berkes, author of Sacred Ecology

In this innovative and deeply felt work, Bron Taylor examines the evolution of “green religions”: spiritual practices that hold nature as sacred and have in many cases replaced traditional religions. Taylor addresses a central theoretical question: How can environmentally oriented, spiritually motivated individuals and movements be understood as religious when many of them reject religious and supernatural worldviews? This book provides a fascinating global tour of the green religious phenomenon.

Bron Taylor is Professor of Religion and Nature at the University of Florida. He is Editor-in-Chief of the multi-volume Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature and the Journal for the Study of Religion, Nature and Culture.
